"This is the British dream car that will show the world how wide-awake British designers are." Daily Mirror.

"This must be just about the most desirable object ever produced by the British motor industry ... it's a beautiful piece of design." Tomorrow's World, BBC.

Our acknowledgements to Motor and to Reynolds Tube Co. Ltd. for allowing us to reproduce the detail photographs.

"... the cleverly practical solution to the headlight problem." Observer.

"The V8 has room for one rear passenger ... who sits across the car in a seat formed like one half of those Regency 'sociable' sofas." Autocar.

"Undoubtedly the most interesting area is the 'greenhouse'. Triplex Sundym heat-filtering glass is used ... the advantages are a delight." Autocar.

"The massive tail looks like a particularly succulent piece of Gruyere cheese." Car.
"Impressively well finished glass-fibre body." Autocar.

"The car is so full of fascinating and ingenious ideas that it is impossible to focus on one point for long." Evening Post.
